Margaret Boersma, OCT is a speaker, trainer, instructional coach and consultant. Her varied career of 35 years in education combined with her expertise in social/emotional learning (SEL), allows her to assimilate the affective domain (people skills) with academic curriculum goals. Having trained extensively with Dr. Eric Jensen in brain-compatible pedagogy, and in the arts, Margaret's heart is to transform classroom practice to enable students and educators to thrive. Her innovative training programs enable participants to become competent in emotional intelligence and teach these tools to students. Leadership and communication skills are transformed impacting schools, families and the broader community. Margaret co-authored a chapter, EQ is the New IQ, in Brain Tracy's recent book, Emerge, and is working on her own book, The Dynamic Teaching Model. Her experience in teacher training extends to Canada, the U.S, the Netherlands, Brazil, India, and New Zealand/Australia.

Margaret Boersma's experience and expertise regarding social emotional literacy/skills is outstanding! She has offered many programs in different places across Canada and the United States as well as in Holland and New Zealand. In these times where so many children are experiencing trauma, we need this more than ever! Anyone who is looking for guidance on how to teach and support children/students, you won't look elsewhere when you see what Margaret has to offer. She has impacted countless students, educators and parents around the world.
