Margaret Boersma is an educational consultant and speaker. Her varied career in more than 35 years of teaching, combined with her expertise in emotional intelligence (EQ), allows her to assimilate the affective domain (people skills) with your team goals. She has trained extensively in social and emotional learning, the arts, and with Dr. Eric Jensen in brain-compatible teaching methodology. Margaret's heart is to bring emotional intelligence to schools and workplaces so they can thrive. Her innovative training programs result in enhanced leadership and communication skills taking your team to a state of thriving and full potential. As a co-author of Emerge: Be the Unmistakeable Authority in Your Field, Margaret's chapter, EQ is the New IQ, highlights her program for organizations. She works with leaders in Canada, the U.S., The Netherlands, Brazil, India and New Zealand.

Margaret Boersma's experience and expertise regarding social emotional literacy/skills is outstanding! She has offered many programs in different places across Canada and the United States as well as in Holland and New Zealand. In these times where so many children are experiencing trauma, we need this more than ever! Anyone who is looking for guidance on how to teach and support children/students, you won't look elsewhere when you see what Margaret has to offer. She has impacted countless students, educators and parents around the world.
